April News

Dear Fellow Members,

With a lot of effort from club members we had a very successful Coffee Morning. Special thanks to Carole and Eleanor who organised and put the show on the road and also please thank the husbands who helped.

Eleanor, busy lady as she is, along with quite a few of our members gave a happy afternoon tea party for invited senior citizens. Everyone enjoyed the entertainment and the lovely home baking.

Our thanks to Wilma for the happy, chatty coffee morning this month. The book stall now seems well established. Good for club funds.

Carole and I attended the Perth Club's Open Day Meeting on the 5th April.

I am pleased to say everyone who put their names forward for the District Rally has been accepted.

Sheila, on behalf of all the members I extend to you our sympathy on the sudden death of your Father, you have been in our thoughts.

Our speaker for 25th April will be Win Harleg.

Best Wishes
Yours in friendship

Betty
