Inner Wheel Club of Cupar

Session 2009-2010

November News

Dear Fellow Members,

I'm sure all who attended the last meeting found Lesley Childs talk on Caring for Carers extremely informative and it was reassuring to hear that support is always available to those of any age who find themselves in the position of a carer.

It was also great to have the company of the Cupar and Howe of Fife Rotary Presidents, Bill Nicoll and Dennis Beattie and we were delighted Dennis's wife Bronwen came to join us as well.

My thanks to Carole for hosting a very well attended and enjoyable coffee morning.

This month four members Olive, Carole, Ellen and Sally attended the Stirling Inner Wheel Club's 61st Birthday Tea.

At our meeting on 25th November we will be joined by District Chairman Kay Goodman.

There is no coffee morning next month but to help us to get into the Christmas spirit we have our Christmas Lunch on Wednesday 9th December. I hope to see many of you there.

Yours in friendship,
Kitty.

It's November so it's Quiz time!

Ladies, I hope you have been successful in selling lots of copies of the Quiz. I also hope you are having fun testing your brain power! The quiz is challenging but good fun. Having said that I still have 3 blank spaces so am looking forward to seeing the solutions!

Can you please put any monies in an envelope marked QUIZ with your name also on the front and I will hopefully collect them at the November meeting.

Gentle Reminders from your Community Service Convenor

Since quite a lot of members were away during last month's meeting, may I remind everyone of the following important dates for their diary:-

1. Inner Wheel Day on 13th January 2010 at President Kitty's house (please remember to take plants, bulbs or fresh flowers for us to share out and deliver to Care/Nursing Homes as in January of this year).

2. I have the information if anybody wants to register interest/send off/ take part in the Mammoth Macmillan Quiz to be held on 26th February 2010.

3. A proposed Inner Wheel Beetle Drive to be held in March at Duffus Park

Bowling Club - date to be announced later when Sheila has negotiated a vacant slot for us

4. The Inner Wheel CHARITY COFFEE MORNING to be held in The Corn Exchange on April 3rd 2010, falls on Easter Saturday! So no luxury cruises/holidays allowed until the following day, ladies, or we may struggle to man the stalls/ run the Café! A big team effort would really be appreciated.

5. Please keep the money rolling in from the Charity notelets. To date, we have reached the £200 mark, so 'Well done, ladies!' - a superb team effort. 'When the going gets tough, the tough keep going!' - so please do your best to sell any remaining packs. I still have a few left if you need more!!!!!!!

Chris

Entertainments

I have bought 14 tickets for the Snow-white on Ice show in Perth Concert Hall on Sunday 14 February at 2.30pm. Anyone still wishing to go please let me know asap to avoid disappointment. Cost £20 (concessions) – no further reduction available!

Mary

Note from the Treasurer

I will be happy to collect your payment for the Christmas Lunch (£16) at the meeting. This will make Lunch day easier, and more enjoyable!!

Anne
