Inner Wheel Club of Cupar

Session 2009-2010

April News

Hello Ladies,

What a fantastic result we had from our annual coffee morning. Chris and Margo will give you details about it at the next meeting. Thanks to everyone who contributed in any way, helping on the day, selling tickets, providing goods etc. Particular thanks go to Chris and Margo, not only for their work on the day but for all the work they put in organising the event for weeks beforehand.

Thanks also to Mary for hosting another very successful coffee morning. It was a beautiful day and some members enjoyed sitting outside in the sunshine.

At the beginning of the month five of us, Carole, Mary, Heather, Sally and I attended a very enjoyable afternoon at the Perth Inner Wheel Club open meeting.

The speaker at our next meeting on 28th April is Sandy Forbes whose topic is "Bonsai". Hope to see you then.

Yours in friendship

Kitty.

OVERSEAS SERVICE

DIDN'T WE DO WELL!!

A great big pat on the back to all those who worked so hard to make the Coffee Morning such a great success realising the magnificent sum of £1359! There was a great turn out of people despite the road chaos in Cupar. Thank you all.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Well done ladies and many thanks for your support and camaraderie! We had a very successful Coffee Morning (raising £1359 at the last count) despite it being Easter Saturday and Bonnygate being closed.

Elaine Brailsford (from Tesco) certainly enjoyed being with us and has already agreed to help us again next year on Saturday 2nd April (That's DIARY ALERT 1, ladies).

DIARY ALERT 2

The usual Wednesday coffee morning which is scheduled to be at my house on 2nd June, has now been changed to an afternoon session, with strawberry teas served from 2.30pm.

Please pray for some sun to ripen the Scottish strawberries!

Chris
