June News

Ladies

These are my final few words to you all, as my term of office finishes this month.

I have had a great year, being treated like royalty and cared for by my committee.

What marvellous ladies they are, and, not only are they very efficient, but also great company.

They are never lost for words and as most of them will be staying on committee next year, it looks like being quite an enjoyable one.

I usually just stay quiet and let them get on with it! That is what they are good at.

I could not have got through the year without Olive, my secretary. She made sure I was where I was supposed to be, and supplied me with all the paperwork I needed.

My shy unassuming speaker secretary Elspeth excelled herself with a broad range of speakers.

I cannot mention all of my committee today, but each and every one of them supported and advised and prompted me where necessary, and that was quite often I can assure you.

I will be sad to finish, but the future of our club looks healthy and I look forward to being a part of it for some time to come.

Thank you ladies,
Yours in friendship

Pat

COMMUNITY SERVICE

My sincere thanks to the 'A TEAM', for all your continued support, laughter and friendship. Enjoy the sun, ladies (if we see it again) and I look forward to seeing you all in September, full of vim, vigour and va-va-voom! Margo and I will continue to be the St Trinian's Duo, so who knows what may happen? Maybe we'll be sacked! Enjoy the break, ladies.

Yours in friendship

Chris

OVERSEAS SERVICE

Ladies

I cannot believe that this is my last newsletter contribution as OSO. How time flies!

I would like to thank each and every one of you for all your help over the last couple of years. You have collected seeds and garden items, filled Buckets of Love, knitted or collected knitted goods to help those in need, collected used stamps, old spectacles, and printer cartridges (not Epson!), sold quizzes (thanks again to Carole and Kitty), and most of all done your bit for our Annual Charity Coffee Morning!!! Amazing! I know you will continue to support Rosemary in the same way next year.

I would like to remind you of the Strawberry Tea at my house on Wednesday 6th July at 2.30pm.

Many of you already have tickets.

Margo

OSO

ENTERTAINMENTS

Our final event for the year was the annual putting competition against IW St. Andrews on the 'Himalayas' on the beautiful summer evening! Sadly we were soundly beaten but it turned out we were all winners. Why? The delightful US golf professional Tom Watson was also putting. He chatted at length to everyone and eventually presented the trophy to the victors. The hole-in-one Mars bars were also presented by him and Carole was a recipient for Cupar – she still hasn't eaten it! A very sociable supper then followed at the Links Club House.
