Inner Wheel Club of Cupar

Session 2011 - 2012

September News

A few words from our President Margo:

Hello Ladies

I hope that despite the disappointing weather you have all had a good summer. Our Strawberry Tea in July was a casualty of the weather and had to be held indoors, but was nonetheless enjoyable. It seems incredible that while we were tucking into the scones, strawberries and meringues with great gusto, looking out onto the rain, in the Horn of Africa there was (and still is) great famine because of prolonged drought. The club has responded to the Famine Appeal.

I came back at the beginning of August, after two weeks in a hot and steamy Florida, savouring the delights of Disney, to torrential rain and flood alerts! Now this week we are bearing the brunt of the remnants of Hurricane Katia! Our summer coffee mornings have been very successful and our thanks go to Carole and Olive for hosting these. We have now added a recipe exchange along with the book exchange. Both are 50p.

Along with Chris, Olive, Elinor, Carole and Ellen, I attended the District Meeting in Perth in August. District Chairman Sandra Bartram's charity for this year is Shelter Box. Dr John Kerr from the Howe of Fife Rotary Club was the speaker and he has challenged all Inner Wheel Clubs in District 1 to raise money for a box! The cost of each box is £590. Quite a challenge! District Chairman Sandra will be joining us at our October meeting.

At our first meeting of the session on 28th September, the speaker will be Eric Young whose topic is "Gems and Scottish Agates". Also joining us at that meeting will be Ann Bain, President of The Rotary Club of The Howe of Fife.

I look forward to seeing many of you then.

Yours in friendship
Margo

OVERSEAS SERVICE

I hope, despite the weather, that everyone has enjoyed a good summer. Please remember to keep collecting used postage stamps and old spectacles for Oxfam.

Water Aid will benefit from money raised from used printer cartridges and old mobile phones.

With thanks,

Rosemary Wotherspoon – O.S.O.

APOLOGIES

Please let Olive have any apologies, either by e-mail or telephone by Sunday 25th September 2011.

ANY CHANGES?

If any member has a change of address or e-mail could they please contact the secretary with details.

Now – just for fun!

A QUESTION OF INNER WHEEL

1. Two of our members appear in the summer 2011 edition of "News at One" (not counting the putting team with Tom Watson). Who are they?
2. Who is my new "boss" on the District Committee this year? A bonus point if you know to which club she belongs.
3. How much does the "Association Talking Magazine" CD, spoken by our own Past District Chairman Linda Moyes, cost?

If you wish to give me your answers at the meeting – before I tell you them – there may just be a small reward!!

Carole
