Inner Wheel Club of Cupar

Session 2008-2009

February News

Hello Ladies

Our thoughts are with Janice at this very sad time. Many of us have lost our partners and we know that no words can make the loss any easier but the knowledge that we have friends to turn to and who will support us through these, the darkest of days, give us hope for the future.

District Chairman, Mary Leslie, has written to thank us for the warm welcome she received at our meeting. Her talk emphasised that Inner Wheel is about friendship and fellowship and I know that our club fulfils that purpose.

I think we all enjoyed hearing from Dr. Edith Cormack and Mary's suggestion of a guided tour of the Botanic Gardens would be a real treat.

Our thanks to June for hosting another well supported coffee morning. Judging by the noise level everyone was enjoying a grand blether!

Our best wishes go to Marlene and Mary and we hope they make a good recovery and are back at our meetings soon.

I look forward to seeing you all at the Joint Meeting on the 25th February – remember it's an earlier start.

Best Wishes
Yours in friendship

Connie

OVERSEAS SERVICE

The 6 “ Buckets of Love” will go to Blythswood on Tuesday 17th February for distribution to needy families in third world situations. Thank you for all your contributions

Next for us is the annual Coffee Morning on Saturday 28th March in the Corn Exchange. Details will follow as soon as possible. Meantime I ask you to save the usual things—books and media, good as new bric-a-brac and tombola (gifts and bottles)

Regards

Carole
