Great Truths Learned by Small Children.

No matter how hard you try you can't baptise cats.
When your mother is cross with your father, don't let her brush your hair,
Never ask your three year old brother to hold a tomato.
You can't trust dogs to guard your food.
If your sister hits you, don't hit her back...they always catch the second person.

April News

Hello Ladies

Firstly a big thank you to Kitty for holding the fort while I was off on my travels. I wasn't the only one - Liz was in Australia and Elinor was supporting the curling team in Canada. However, we're back now and just about recovered from jet-lag. Thanks too to June for being Club Correspondent during Liz's absence.

I heard good reports about last month's speaker - it seemed to have been an interesting topic. This month we'll be hearing about herbal medicine. I don't know about you but I'm looking for a magic cure for general old age!!

It's great to see such big turnouts at our coffee mornings. Liz had a full house, full of chatter and laughter as well as people. Margo will be hosting next month. If you have any paperbacks that you are finished with please bring them along.

The response to the Charity Lunch on the 30th has been very good and there are only a couple of tickets left. If you haven't booked your ticket please phone me as soon as possible.

I hope to see you all at our Club Meeting on the 29th.

Best Wishes
Yours in friendship

Connie

OVERSEAS SERVICE

Thank you all so much for the sterling work put in for the Annual Coffee Morning. We needed the customers and we got them in abundance! We netted about £1100, so our charities will be have a good donation to put to good use.

I hope to have a display of knitting at the April meeting before it is sent off to "Feed the Children". If you have anything ready to go please bring it along for the rest of the members to admire.

Regards

Carole

Community Service

I would like to thank everyone who helped in any way at the Coffee Morning. It was a great success and raised £1182.90. From the proceeds the Community element will be donated to Weston House Day Centre and the Youth Café, Cupar.

Again thank you to everyone involved in any way whatsoever.

Eleanor
