Nursery Rhymes: The Hard Facts.

Little Miss Muffet. The hapless child is thought to be Patience Muffett, stepdaughter of the 16th century entomologist Dr Thomas Muffett, She was traumatised over breakfast by one of his escaped arachnids.

Humpty Dumpty: Supposedly the name of a Royalist cannon blown up by attacking Parliamentarians in Colchester during the English Civil War. Despite their best efforts, all the King's men couldn't repair it.

May News

Hello Ladies

It has been a very busy few weeks since my last newsletter. The lunch at Elmwood College was excellent and we raised over £550 for Disability Sport Fife .Our grateful thanks go to Audrey Fairnie for suggesting the fund raiser and for producing such a lovely meal, and to the College for donating the food.

While we enjoyed the lunch, Heather and Sally were at Pitlochry Birthday Party and learned quite a bit about the workings of the theatre from the guest speaker. A group of us enjoyed an evening at St.Michaels Inn where we helped North East Fife Inner Wheel celebrate and we heard about the Fife Diet – very interesting.

While I battled it out in a howling gale on Elmwood Golf Course playing in Cupar Rotary's Golf Day, a big group of our ladies enjoyed a tour of the Botanic Gardens in St.Andrews. They were taken round by Dr. Cormack who spoke at a meeting earlier this year and from all reports it was a very successful outing.

My thanks to all of you who hosted Frugal Lunches/ afternoon teas etc. these are great money makers as well as lovely ways of catching up with the 'chat'. I'm sure the coffee morning at Margo's would be very busy too.

Our next meeting is our Birthday Party so I look forward to seeing you all on the 27th

Best Wishes
Yours in friendship

Connie
